Legal Notice

Last Updated: September 1, 2022

This Legal Notice (this “Notice”) is provided by Multichain Labs LTD, a BVI business company, having a registered address at Intershore Chambers, Road Town, Tortola, P.O. Box 4342, the British Virgin Islands (collectively with its affiliates, “we”, “our”, “us” or “Company”).

Any statements, announcements, and communications made by us, as well as any other information however communicated by us or on our behalf with respect to the Bitorbit projects (collectively, the “Information”), including the Bitorbit NFT-bazaar and social network, BITORB token, and any other product related to the Bitorbit ecosystem (collectively, the “Products”) are and shall be subject to this Notice. Please read this Notice carefully before using, referring to, or relying upon any Information provided by us or on our behalf.

Informational Purposes

Unless otherwise expressly stated to the contrary, the Information and any data, content, and materials contained on our website available at <https://bitorbit.foundation>, including its subdomains or provided by us in any public communication channels operated by us, such as Telegram, Discord, etc. (collectively, the “Materials”), are provided for informational purposes only and nothing contained in the Materials constitutes a promise or representation. The Materials should not be relied upon, either wholly or partially, when making any decision. We do not warrant, guarantee or represent, whether expressly or impliedly, that the Materials are true, complete, timely, reliable, accurate, sufficient, non-infringing, or fit for a particular purpose, and we will be under no obligation to update or fix such Materials. We shall not be responsible for the accuracy or completeness of the Materials; therefore, any use of such information is at your own discretion and risk, and you are solely responsible for any possible damages or losses arising from such use. You should always conduct your own independent research and thorough investigation.

No Offer or Solicitation

Nothing contained in the Materials constitutes an offer to sell, a recommendation or solicitation to buy, sell or hold any digital (virtual) assets, including BITORB token. Nothing in the Materials constitutes a recommendation or solicitation to use the Products, or any related software, products, or services. Always make sure to verify that the information that you believe is provided by us is posted or communicated by our authorized representatives.

Third-Party Data

The Materials may also include references to third-party data and industry publications. Although we believe that such data is accurate and reasonable, there are no assurances as to the accuracy or completeness of this data. We have not independently verified any of the data from third-party sources referred to in the Materials or ascertained the underlying assumptions relied upon by such sources. Any reference to such third-party data and industry publications does not imply our endorsement or recommendation thereof.

Forward-Looking Statements

The Materials contain forward-looking statements based on current expectations that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. All opinions, forecasts, projections, future plans or other statements other than statements of historical fact, are forward-looking statements. Any development plans and projections, business projections, future functionality and projected performance of the Products or Company, as well as prospects and the future prospects of any industry, are forward-looking statements.

Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain or unknown. We can give no assurance that any forward-looking statements will prove to have been correct. Actual events, results or outcomes could differ materially from what is stated in the forward-looking statement, and you should not rely on any such forward-looking statement. These risks and uncertainties include the impact of economic, competitive, technical and other factors affecting the Products, Company, or their operations, including, but not limited to, the following: development of science and technology, development of the industry in which we are in, competition, regulatory uncertainty and government actions, the introduction of new regulations and laws, market changes, performance of the Products, other business and market conditions.

Acknowledgement of Risks

By relying on the Materials or Information you hereby acknowledge and agree to the risks inherent in the Products, which may include, but not limited to: (a) risk of software weaknesses, (b) blockchain-related risks, (c) risk of flawed logic of the Products, (d) risk of legal uncertainty, (e) regulatory risks, and (f) risk of theft or permanent loss of digital assets.

No Advice

No part of the Materials should be considered to be business, legal, financial, investment, or tax advice, or advice of a broker regarding any matters to which all or any part of such information relates. You should consult your own legal, financial, tax, or other professional advisors regarding any such information. Always do your own research and due diligence.

Interpretation

Unless otherwise explicitly stated by us, the terms “debt,” “lend,” “borrow,” “collateral,” “credit,” “leverage,” “APY,” “yield,” “invest”, and other similar terms, as may be used in the Materials, shall not have a direct meaning are not meant to be interpreted literally. Such terms are being used to provide rough analogies between the automated operations of blockchain smart-contract systems and the real-world transactions.

Limitation of Liability

The Materials and Information are provided on an “as is” and “as available” basis, without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to the warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement.

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, in no event shall we or any of our employees, directors, shareholders, officers, consultants, representatives, agents, or contractors be responsible for or held liable in connection with any direct, indirect, special, punitive, exemplary, incidental, or consequential damages or losses of any kind, nor shall such persons be liable for the loss of goodwill, loss of profits (including expected), loss of data, diminution of value, loss of profits or opportunities, and business interruption arising out of or in connection with the Materials or Information, their use or reliance thereon, including without limitation, the accuracy, reliability, currency, veracity, or completeness of the Materials or Information, any delays, inaccuracies or errors in, or in the transmission of, the Materials or Information, or the use of or reliance on the Materials or Information, whether based upon breach of warranty or contract, negligence, strict liability, tort, or any other legal theory, regardless of whether we have been advised of the possibility of such damages or losses.
